PULPIT AND ANGELS INSTALLED FOR GOOD!

The visiting members who came at the occasion of the Sacred Heart Novena were impressed by the newly installed marble pulpit and adoring angels.

A special thank you to all who have helped us to realize this project!

Holy Mass has been offered for all benefactors of the church on the feast of the Sacred Heart

CATHOLIC TEACHING TO BE EXPLAINED IN ITS INTEGRITY

On 27th June, Feast of the Sacred Heart, Canon Lehocq blessed the newly installed pulpit and delivered the homily.

Every day this church comes one step closer to life. The recent installation of these two pieces of art is a sign that this church, your church, is being faithful to its vocation. God did not permit it to be turned into a leisure centre, a spa or other profane use. It remains a sacred building where everyone can adore Jesus like the angels and where the timeless teachings of the Catholic Church can be explained in its integrity from this beautiful pulpit.

This church, like Jesus, also suffered its passion. Fewer vocations were flourishing among the Jesuits, less attendance, a spiritual crisis in the world and recession in the families. Many tears were shed; hearts were broken during the so called 'farewell mass' in June 2006. This church followed our Lord Jesus Christ until the sepulchre, until death.

Tonight we would like to renew this public reparation to the Sacred Heart and ask Jesus: "Have mercy on us"; "We beg your pardon for the state of this church, for its closure during 7 years, for the removal of all its liturgical items: the tabernacle, communion rail, pews, Stations of the Cross... We would like to beg your pardon for the consequences of the lack of maintenance in this sacred building. Yes, we must ask Jesus in prayer tonight for a sincere "pardon".

But at the same time, our presence here is an expression of our profound confidence in Him. The image of the Sacred Heart keeps blessing Limerick.

All your sacrifices, all your efforts are being answered: the statue is looking out over Limerick again, the Blessed Sacrament is once again adored in this church where Holy Mass is offered daily, where the divine office is sung and devotions are held. Thanks to your prayers, the Sacred Heart of Jesus is once again publicly adored in Limerick.

This church is being made clean and is coming back to life! This cleanness can be extended to your souls if you simply raise your eyes towards the Cross, if you open your heart to the water and blood that came forth, if you invoke God to dwell in you together with the desire to cooperate with His grace."

As a sign of jurisdiction, a temporary throne of the same colour as the liturgical vestments is erected above a Bishop in his Diocese or a Cardinal outside of Rome.

We often need help for many different projects in the church.

Do you have any skills or spare time?
